

GREAT LAKES SCHOOL OF ETIQUETTE

About the Founder

An etiquette consultant with the Global Protocol and Etiquette Group for four years, Adrienne Hooker was trained and certified by the Protocol School of Washington, the nations only accredited etiquette school, in May of 2005. She provides interactive programs for youth and young adults in manners and etiquette, dining skills, protocol and professional business savvy.

Ms. Hooker is a former educator with experience in elementary through high school levels in both public and private sectors. She has coordinated and managed workforce development programs for Milwaukee Area Technical College, and facilitated soft skill trainings for various organizations, including Johnson Controls, Incorporated, Girl Scouts of America, Pearls for Teen Girls and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated.

Adrienne holds a Bachelor's degree in Educational Policies and Community Studies from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a Master's degree in Administration and Supervision from National Louis University in Wheeling, Illinois.
